

SOUTH WATERFORD

Death of Willard W. Abbott

Waterford, today, has paused in its many activities and bowed its head in sorrow at the death of one of its most loved and esteemed citizens, Willard W. Abbott. Mr. Abbott was born in Andover, Mass., Dec. 21, 1877, the son of Sewall H. and Alfred L. Abbott. When he was eight years old the family moved to Plummer Hill in Waterford where they lived for many years. In 1916, they moved to South Waterford, where they have been connected with the Waterford Creamery. On Dec. 30, 1930, he married Flora Hennell, who has been privileged to walk life's pathway with him ever since and who has most tenderly and faithfully cared for him during his long illness.

Mr. Abbott was a most genial and friendly man. He was known throughout the countryside for his hospitality and always enjoyed the visits of his friends and acquaintances. He was a great lover of nature and country life and delighted in his farm, his fine crops and especially his fine herd of pure bred Jerseys, one of the best herds in the state. He was a member of the Jersey Breeders' Association and until his illness prevented, was a regular attendance at its meetings.

He was always ready and willing to help the needy and suffering and as long as his health permitted, answered the call of a neighbor, whatever time of day or night he was summoned. He was a member of Mr. T. H. Lodge, F. & A. M., Valley Spring Lodge, K. of P., and Bear Mr. Grange. He served several years on the board of selectmen.

He is survived by his wife, his mother, his niece, Dorothy Holden, and a son, Mrs. Ethel Burgess, who made her home for many years in town, also one uncle, and many cousins, besides a host of friends, who mourn their loss. His only sister, Mrs. Ida Holden, passed away last November.

During his many months of suffering, he kept his genial personality, never complaining, meeting each day as it came, greeting his friends with his cheery smile and welcome word.

Early Sunday morning, Mar. 13, when his call came to the land where those who loved him were all united to love again, he was ready to answer the call.

Oh, sweetly sleeps this life of ours, through age's silver bars, a fading flash on hill and sky, and to the world of stars.

We bless Thee, gentle God, for birth, by which we hither come, we bless Thee for the gift of death, the good man's passage home.

We bless Thee for the heart to feel, and for the eye to see, for faith that reaches over time and space eternally.

Oh, softly fades this life of ours, through age's silver bars, a fading flash on hill and sky, and to the world of stars.

And to the world of stars!

Etzel Kimball spent the day, recently, with her grandmother, Mrs. Merritt Savin, on Plummer Hill.

Etzel M. Monroe, who is spending the winter with her brother and family in Westford, Mass., has been ill. According to late reports, she is gaining.

The supper and drama were well attended.

Word has been received of the death of Claude Willard, son of the late Eldon Willard, which occurred in a Portland hospital a few days ago. He was a native of this town and for many years lived on Blackguard. He moved away about thirty years ago.

Mrs. Etzel Bell is in the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sanborn from Norway called on Mrs. Sanborn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Pike, last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ralihan have recently been on a visit to his home in Wilder, Vt.

WATERFORD

Both the women's and men's divisions of the Farm Bureau met at the Wilcox House on Tuesday. It was Mrs. DeCoster's first meeting with us since her marriage and in her honor a delicious chicken dinner was served at noon by the committee. Mrs. Hubbard, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Dora Rounds and Mrs. Blanche Tyler. Mr. Brandon, with a few well chosen words, presented Mrs. DeCoster with a gift of money.

The 4-H Club girls met with Mrs. Eugenia Collins on Saturday and organized for the year. They have five new members.

Mrs. Charlotte Fillevorn and Stephen went the day, Thursday, with Mrs. Albert Hamlin.

Mrs. Blanche Tyler entertained a small group at bridge, Thursday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. L. R. Rounds and Miss Ruth Rounds spent the week end in Portland.

Rev. Mr. Brand was ill and unable to preach on Sunday. Rev. Townsend had the church services in this village, at North Waterford, East Waterford and North Lovell. He covered a distance of fifty-five miles and preached to fifty-five people.

A good quota of the residents of our village attended the supper at the drama "Plain People" at South Waterford, Friday evening.

NORTH BRIDGTON

Bridgton Academy

For the third consecutive year Bridgton Academy will be playing for the state championship honors of the Maine Preparatory School when they play in the University of Maine tournament on Mar. 18th and 19th. Four of the leading schools of the state have been invited to play for the state honors on this date. Bridgton thus far has won fourteen games and lost two and the team is considered one of the best to ever represent the school.

Two years ago Bridgton won the State Championship honors in the Prep School Conference and last year they were runners up playing in the finals against E. M. C. S. and lost to the up-state team, Coach Fred "Fish" Ellis this year he hopes he has the best team of the past three years and is in hopes that the boys will come through on this date with an other crown.

In the preliminary games Bridgton will face Hobart Academy and the game will be up against Auburn. The winners will play off on Saturday for the State Prep School title.

The Bridgton five is composed of Captain Harris of Boston and Ralph Hamilton of Fort Fairfield as forwards; Frederick Lane of Waterville; center; Carl Adams of Gorham, Mass., and John Cash of Dover, N. H., at guards. The reserves all of whom have played in many games this year are Frank Nichols of Tariffville, Conn., John Beckley of Portland, Maurice Acerra of Medford, Mass., and Philip Fitzpatrick of Bridgton. This makes boys from four different states on the squad of ten to be selected.

The team is coached by Fred "Fish" Ellis, former star four letter man at Tufts College and this is the third successful team he has coached in as many years at Bridgton. The score for the year thus far is:
